Overview of the Emirates Airlines Name Change Policy

Emirates Airlines has specific guidelines regarding name changes on flight bookings. Understanding these rules can help you navigate the process effectively.

Minor Name Corrections

For minor corrections, such as fixing a spelling mistake or a small typographical error, Emirates allows changes without much complication. Common examples of minor changes include:

- Correcting “Micheal” to “Michael”
- Adjusting the order of first and last names

These types of changes are typically straightforward and can be requested without incurring significant fees.

Major Name Changes

If you need to make a significant name change, such as changing your first or last name due to marriage, divorce, or other personal reasons, the process is different. Emirates generally requires passengers to cancel their existing ticket and rebook under the new name.

How to Change Your Name on an Emirates Ticket

Here's a step-by-step guide to help you change your name on an Emirates flight:

- Contact Customer Service: For any name change requests, the first step is to contact Emirates customer service at 1-860-516-6375. Their representatives can provide personalized assistance and determine whether your request qualifies as a minor or major change.
- Online Management: If your name change is minor, you may be able to manage your booking through the Emirates website. Simply log into your account, locate your flight, and follow the prompts to make the necessary adjustments.
- Visit an Emirates Ticket Office: For in-person assistance, you can also visit an Emirates ticket office. Bring any required identification and documentation that may support your name change request.

Fees and Charges

While minor name corrections are generally free, significant name changes may incur fees. It's essential to clarify any potential costs when contacting customer service or managing your booking online.

Important Considerations

- Act Quickly: As soon as you realize you need to change your name, take action. The earlier you start the process, the smoother it will be.
- Documentation: If you're changing your name due to legal reasons, be prepared to provide relevant documentation, such as a marriage certificate or divorce decree.
- Check Fare Conditions: Different fare types may have specific restrictions related to name changes. Familiarize yourself with your ticket's terms to avoid any surprises.
